

Levantine Marriage Bureau

About us

We are an elite marriage bureau connecting the Lebanese diaspora, in Lebanon and abroad, to introduce our distinguished clients with a view to marriage. Our modus operandi is to represent a small number of clients at any one time, who are seeking marriage.

We are not a short-term dating site and do not engage in this service - we only engage with a view to marriage and our introductions are fully verified and thoroughly researched.

We find the best partner for you after taking detailed instructions - we work on an invitation only basis and determine which clients we will accept.

The concept of a matchmaker has always been there; since the beginning of time. There was always someone elder or well connected - a matriarch - who would know the individuals and make the connections. Always in confidence, and always with the best intentions in mind. There is nothing new here.

How we work

Experts in this field with a wealth of experience, connections with leading educational institutions, professional bodies, a network of well-to-do introducers, and societal elite - we can leverage the most enviable black book in the Levantine world to find your match. Nobody does it better, we have no peer.

We know the Lebanese diaspora like no other institution, and know to make the match.

I. We work on you first

Our leading psychologist helps you determine what you want and what you need (the two are not always the same), our stylist knows how to present you in the right way, what to say and what to do - that's our job. We don't leave anything to chance, and have helped some of the most exacting and demanding clients in the Levant.

II. We understand what you want

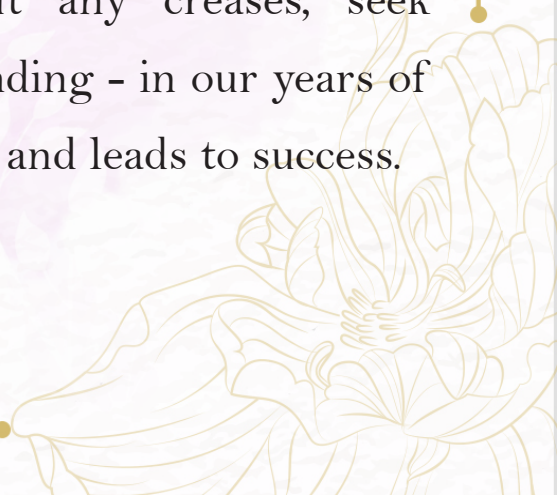

We don't show you what is there but seek what you want. We prepare a narrow, focused shortlist based on your requirements. Minimizing your time and allowing you to know that your requirements are matched before you meet.

III. We work with a very selective clients

We work with a very selective clients list and conduct thorough due diligence to make sure all information is entirely accurate. We are more thorough in our verification than a bank or law firm. You can trust our service as we go to great lengths to ensure our reputation is upheld.

IV. This is not a dating service.

We introduce families as well as individuals and take great care to ensure you are treated with the highest integrity and respect throughout. We will always be involved. Often it's the case that the individual is left to themselves after the introduction - this can lead to misunderstandings and miscommunication - we are always involved going forward and can iron out any creases, seek clarifications and encourage mutual understanding - in our years of experience this is a critical part of the service, and leads to success.
